A Juneteenth Celebration Friday, June 15th at 7:30 pm

Hazell Jefferson, Kedron Miller and Friends will present a program combining spirituals and storytelling ...

Juneteenth is the oldest known celebration commemorating the ending of slavery in the U. S. On June 19, 1865, two-and-a-half years after the official implementation of President Lincoln's Emancipation Proclamation, Union soldiers landed at Galveston, Texas with news that the war had ended and that the enslaved were now free. Come and listen and learn what happened ... All are welcome to a reception in Getman Hall after the concert! $15 suggested donation, 12 and under free

Celtic Evensong with Healing Service Wednesday, May 30^d at 6:30 pm

This service is based on the prayer resources from Iona and does not include a creed or confession. There is open communion, and laying on of hands with prayers for healing. Everyone is invited to participate regardless of their faith tradition. The worship is carried by light and music. All are welcome.

St. Paul's Episcopal Church Endowment Fund

Our Endowment Fund exists as a vehicle to provide the future funds necessary to maintain and preserve our sacred church home for this and for future generations.

There are several ways that you can make a planned gift to the Endowment Fund to establish your legacy at St. Paul's. One of the easiest is by designating "St. Paul's Episcopal Church Exton" as a beneficiary to your existing bank or financial account, retirement account or life insurance policy. In so doing, you will help to provide a lifeline for our Parish for years to come.

begins on Sunday, June 24th with a combined service at 9 am. Sunday Breakfast, the Adult Forum, Sunday School and Children's Chapel will resume in September.

THE LITURGY OF THE WORD

FIRST READING Isaiah 6:1-8 See Insert

Our first reading is Isaiah's vision of the Lord and his prophetic commission. The earthly temple becomes an icon for the temple in heaven. Isaiah is purged of his guilt and sin and responds to the Lord's call. The church hears in the thrice-holy song of the seraphim an anticipation of its praise of God as Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

PSALM 29 See Insert

SECOND READING Romans 8:12-17 See Insert

In this lesson we hear that if we follow our lower nature, we are enslaved and destined to death, but when we are moved by God's Spirit, we become God's children and heirs with Christ. The Spirit makes this experience possible by prompting our lips to call upon God as Father with the same Aramaic word (Abba) that Jesus used. This new relationship means that we are no longer required to be led by baser instincts. Our heritage is life, while we must also learn to share in Christ's sufferings.

PRAYERS of the PEOPLE

Holy Trinity, One God, the whole world is filled with your glory: Hear the prayers of your children as we say: Ascribe due honor to God's holy Name; worship the Most High in the beauty of holiness.

Abba! Father! You have filled your Church with your Spirit and adopted us as your children. Inspire us to speak of what we know and testify to what we have seen. Fill our Church leaders with your Spirit, especially our Presiding Bishop Michael, our Diocesan Bishops Daniel and Rodney, all Priests, Deacons and Lay Ministers and those serving on the Standing Committee of our Diocese. Renew the witness of your Gospel in our companion Diocese of Guatemala and their Church of the Virgin Saint Mary in Escuintla. Ascribe due honor to God's holy Name; worship the Most High in the beauty of holiness.

Through the ever present and energizing Spirit your presence sustains the world and brings all life into being. Protect, comfort, and heal all who live with illness, threat, poverty or oppression throughout the world, that they may enjoy the goodness of your blessing. Ascribe due honor to God's holy Name; worship the Most High in the beauty of holiness.

Glorious Trinity, One God, enable our community of St. Paul's to be born from above, born of water and Spirit, that we may manifest your loving compassion and peace toward all who find sanctuary in our Church. Ascribe due honor to God's holy Name; worship the Most High in the beauty of holiness.

Your children, O God, have not received a spirit of slavery to fall back into fear, but we have received a spirit of adoption, through which we ask for your aid: Hear our prayers for those on our prayer list _____. I invite your own petitions at this time, either silently or aloud. Embrace those we have loved and lost and welcome them to your eternal banquet table. For you did not send the Son into the world to condemn the world, but in order that the world might be saved through him. Ascribe due honor to God's holy Name; worship the Most High in the beauty of holiness.

Let our prayers and praises fill your temple, O Father, as you send forth your Spirit into the world to empower your children to do the deeds of your Son and to be signs of your divine presence; we pray in the name of our Savior Jesus Christ who lives and reigns with you, O Father, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

Please include the following parishioners in your prayers:

Veronica Grosch, Alex, Dotty McAfoos, Dolores Berridge,
Peter Liebert, Diane Hydrean, Paul Getman, Marion & Joel Goodman

Please keep these families & friends of our parishioners in your prayers:

Candy Jones, Jackson Lance, Logan Dayton, Billie, Sue Ditterline, Debbi J.,
Pastor Ebot Jumo, the Browns, Elizabeth McCull, Sarah McCull, Cynthia
Leiser, Bill & Deb Bauernschmidt, Jim, Lynn Chew West, Ann Lance

If you would like to add a loved one or friend to the prayer chain, please contact Peggy LaGarde at marlag56@gmail.com or 610-458-7125.
